Elliott's win at Dover earns berth in next playoff round

From Miami Herald Wire Services

DOVER, DEL.

Chase Elliott had been burdened by lofty expectations that come as the son of a Hall of Fame driver and the replacement of a four-time NASCAR champion.

As the close calls and frustrating finishes mounted, and wins eluded him, the 22-year-old Elliott could feel the pressure tighten each time he slipped into the No. 9 Chevrolet.

But once Elliott raced to his first Cup win, the second victory wasn't far behind, and now the Hendrick Motorsports star pegged as NASCAR's next most popular driver is thinking championship.

"There isn't any reason why we can't make a run at this deal," Elliott said.

Elliott stayed off pit road during a late caution and avoided similar disasters that struck the Stewart-Haas Racing drivers to pull away and win in overtime Sunday at Dover International Speedway. Elliott earned an automatic berth into the next round of the NASCAR Cup playoffs.

Eight races after his first win at Watkins Glen, Elliott was back in victory lane again — another needed dose of good news for NASCAR following the rousing success of the roval race last week at Charlotte.

Elliott bounded over the wall and high-fived Gordon, the driver he replaced in 2016, and shared a big hug with team owner Rick Hendrick. A year ago at Dover, Elliott coughed up the lead with two laps left to Kyle Busch, in what he called the most crushing defeat of his career.

He left that race 0 for 70 in Cup.

Elliott rubbed his head and leaned against his car, crestfallen as he replayed the final laps in his mind. Jimmie Johnson walked over to offer some encouragement and let Elliott vent.

It was one big celebration on Sunday.

"When he won the race at Watkins Glen, it was like the world was lifted off his shoulders," Hendrick said.

Bill Elliott did not attend the race, but with more races like this one, it's not hard to imagine son eventually eclipsing dad's mark of one Cup championship.

"I think this only elevates his game," Gordon said.

Elliott's win means he can breathe a bit easier as the series shifts to treacherous

NICK WASS AP

Chase Elliott celebrates after his win Sunday in the NASCAR Cup Series race at Dover International Speedway.

Talladega, where anything can happen on the super-speedway. The top eight drivers after the next two races move on to the next round and Aric Almirola, Clint Bowyer, Kyle Larson and Alex Bowman are stuck below the cutoff with two races left in the round of 12.

"We've had so many opportunities and been so close and had the car to win and been in position and I don't know, it just seems to not come through," Almirola said.

Denny Hamlin was second, followed by playoff driver Joey Logano. NASCAR playoff drivers took 10 of the top 15 spots.

SHR was in control with Kevin Harvick early and Almirola late.

Harvick led 286 laps and was on pace to sweep the Dover races until tire issues derailed his run and he finished sixth. Almirola, who led 64 laps late and had his second career Cup win in sight, was running sixth off a restart when he got loose and connected with Brad Keselowski. That triggered a multi-car wreck that collected championship contenders and brought out the red flag to force overtime.

"We were just lucky there and wound up dodging and weaving and being in the right place," Harvick said. "I guess that makes up for the bad luck of losing the race with an absolute dominant car."

Almirola had lost the lead when Bowyer wrecked. Elliott was third when he stayed out on yellow, and would lead the final 11 laps.

"I think that was our best opportunity to win the race, and it was our best opportunity to score the most points we could score," crew chief Alan Gustafson said. "Even if Denny would have passed us, which was certainly a possibility, it was still going to yield us more points than I think it would have had we pitted."

JIMMIE'S RIDE

Hendrick said there could be an announcement in the next month for Johnson's new 2019 sponsor.

Lowe's, which had been on the hood for all seven championships, said this year it was leaving the sport and Hendrick had yet to find another sponsor.

"It's really hard when you have someone that's so successful but they've been tied to one brand for a long time," Hendrick said.

Johnson's bid for a record eighth NASCAR Cup title ended last week when he was eliminated from the playoffs. His No. 48 Chevrolet was forced to the garage at Dover during the pace laps because of mechanical woes and he finished 36th.

Johnson, who holds the Dover record with 11 wins, was an early hit when he dropped off 12 kids' bikes at Martin Truex Jr.'s hauler as an apology of sorts for triggering a wreck last week at Charlotte that denied both drivers a shot at a win.

BIG BET

Elliott had 12-1 odds in the first-ever race where legalized sports betting happened at the track.

Dover International Speedway opened its on-site betting kiosk this weekend and became the only track that allowed sports gambling on its property. NASCAR does not prohibit its drivers or team members from betting on the race.

UP NEXT

The series heads to Talladega where Keselowski is the defending race winner. Team Penske drivers Keselowski and Logano have combined to win five of the last seven races at Talladega.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

UFC brawl boils over

From Miami Herald Wire Services

Khabib Nurmagomedov was the calm, glowering foil to Conor McGregor's antics for six months while the loquacious Irishman built a frenzy of hype around their UFC lightweight title fight.

When Nurmagomedov forced the biggest star in mixed martial arts to tap out Saturday night in Las Vegas to end what's likely to be the most lucrative show in UFC history, he had fashioned the perfect response to McGregor's verbal insults and physical attacks.

But when Nurmagomedov promptly hurdled over the cage and fought with McGregor's taunting cornermen while his own teammates ambushed McGregor in the octagon, the Russian champion and his friends might have seriously damaged careers that were just about to take off.

"These guys are in big trouble," UFC President Dana White said. "It is going to be ugly."

Executive director Bob Bennett said the Nevada Athletic Commission intends to file a complaint following its investigation into the actions of Nurmagomedov and his team for setting off a post-fight melee at UFC 229 immediately after McGregor submitted to Nurmagomedov's choke in the fourth round. Nurmagomedov's $2 million purse has been withheld, and he could face a hefty fine along with a lengthy suspension.

White acknowledged Nurmagomedov's lightweight title could be stripped if his actions result in a significant suspension.

McGregor's $3 million purse was not withheld after commission officials examined video footage and determined his side had done nothing wrong in the melee. McGregor's first public response to the drama came on Twitter early Sunday: "Good knock. Looking forward to the rematch."

ETC.

● Soccer: Riyad Mahrez let Liverpool off the hook by missing a late penalty as Manchester City had to settle for a 0-0 draw in a showdown involving the Premier League's two title favorites at Anfield on Sunday. Mahrez wasted the best chance to break the deadlock when he sent his spot kick sailing way over the crossbar after Virgil van Dijk had brought down Leroy Sane in the 85th minute. Chelsea, also undefeated this season, cruised to a 3-0 victory at Southampton. Arsenal enjoyed a sixth straight league victory with a 5-1 rout of Fulham. ...

Nuremberg goalkeeper Fabian Bredlow saved a penalty, but that didn't make up for the six goals he had already conceded as his team lost 6-0 at Leipzig in the Bundesliga. Bayern Munich, beaten 3-0 at home by Borussia Moenchengladbach, dropped to sixth. Eintracht Frankfurt won 2-1 at Hoffenheim and Freiburg held Bayer Leverkusen to a 0-0 draw. ...

Adam Ounas scored the first goal in Napoli's 2-0 win over Sassuolo in the Italian league. Lorenzo Insigne, who replaced Ounas in the second half, scored the second. ...

Substitute Angel Correa's second-half goal gave Atletico Madrid a 1-0 win over Real Betis in the Spanish league. Valladolid beat Huesca 1-0 for the promoted side's third win in a row. ...

Wayne Rooney scored twice in the second half to raise his season total to nine goals in 16 matches, and D.C. United rallied to beat the Chicago Fire 2-1. The former England captain, who made his Major League Soccer debut in July, has five goals in his last three games.

● Running: Britain's Mo Farah won the Chicago Marathon, finishing in 2 hours, 5 minutes, 11 seconds. Kenya's Brigid Kosgei won the women's race in 2:18:35, the third-fastest time in the history of the Chicago women's race. ...

Two male competitors have died following cardiac arrests after completing a half marathon in Cardiff, Wales, organizers said. Australian runner Jack Rayner won the men's race in the Welsh capital; Juliet Chekwel was the women's champion. ...

Former Chelsea and England captain John Terry has announced his retirement. "After 23 incredible years as a footballer, I have decided now is the right time to retire from playing," Terry, 37, said on his Instagram account Sunday.
