Mad Cat Theatre Company presents Vaclav Havel's Audience and Protest Written in 1978, Audience deals with the travails of Havel's alter-ego Ferdinand

Vanek - recently released from jail for anti-government activities. Valek is stuck in the bleak office of the foreman of the brewery where he has been forced into menial labour. The tedious bureaucracy and constant paranoia of life under the Communists have driven the foreman to alcoholism and to the brink of insanity - he is prone to bouts of rage and despair.

In Protest, Havel's alter ego Ferdinand Valek has escaped his hellish office to visit the middle-class home of one of his friends. He is hoping to convince his old friend Stanek to sign a petition renouncing the regime.

Both plays seek to shine a light on the darkness of censorship and tyrannical rule. March 5 3 p.m.; March 9 8 p.m. $15-$30 Sandbox at the Miami Theater Center 9816 NE 2nd Ave., Miami.

NSU's 5th Annual SeussFest Nova Southeastern University's

Alvin Sherman Library will host the 5th Annual SeussFest Sunday March, 5 from 12-4 p.m. at the Alvin Sherman Library. SeussFest is a special event celebrating Dr. Seuss's birthday and the joy of reading. Our celebration is specifically designed as an early childhood literacy event, and focuses primarily on activity skills, music, and storytelling for ages 4 to 8, but all family members are welcome to join in the fun!

This year we have a magic show, storytellers, petting zoo, arts and crafts, face painters, and much more! Be sure to save the date for this fun early literacy event. Every child gets a free book, while supplies last!

The event is free and open to the public. RSVP by Thursday, March 2 to be entered for a chance to win a prize.

For more information and to RSVP, visit public.library.nova.edu/seussfest or call 954-262-5477. March 5 12 p.m.-4 p.m. Free Nova Southeastern University - Alvin Sherman Library 3100 Ray Ferrero Jr. Blvd., Fort Lauderdale.
