- (b) No party hereto shall be liable for its failure to carry out its obligations under the Agreement during a period when such party is rendered unable, in whole or in part, by Force Majeure to carry out such obligations, but the obligation of the party or parties relying on such Force Majeure shall be suspended only during the continuance of any inability so caused and for no longer period of said unexpected or uncontrollable event, and such cause shall, so far as possible, be remedied with all reasonable dispatch.
- (c) It is further agreed and stipulated that the right of any party hereto to excuse its failure to perform by reason of Force Majeure shall be conditioned upon such party giving, to the other party or parties, written notice of its assertion that a Force Majeure delay has commenced within ten (10) working days after such commencement, unless there exists good cause for failure to give such notice, in which event failure to give such notice shall not prejudice any party's right to justify any non-performance as caused by Force Majeure unless the failure to give timely notice causes material prejudice to the other party or parties.

SECTION V — COMPENSATION

- (b) Adjustments of compensation and time for completion of services hereunder because of any major changes in the work that might become necessary or be deemed desirable, as the work progresses shall be left to the absolute discretion of the Project Manager. In the event that the Consultant does not concur with the decisions of the Project Manager, the Consultant shall present any such objections in writing to the Town Manager. The Project Manager and the Consultant shall abide by the decisions of the Town Manager unless arbitrary or unreasonable. This paragraph does not constitute a waiver of either party's right to proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction, subject to the standards set forth above.

SECTION XI — OWNERSHIP OF DOCUMENTS

All reports, tracings, plans, specifications, maps, contract documents, designs, and/or other data (the "Documents") developed by the Consultant pursuant to this Agreement shall become the property of the Town without restrictions or limitations upon their use and shall be made available by the Consultant at any time upon request by the Town. Reuse of such Documents by the Town for any purpose other than that for which prepared shall be at the Town's sole risk.
