DANIA BEACH

Center in Dania Beach.

At Tigertail, you can learn to sail, paddleboard, kayak or scuba dive. Climb a rope obstacle course. Tackle an Aqua Challenge on water floats. Or even just sit on a beach (yes, there is a small patch of sand along the water).

It's one of Broward County's best kept secrets, owned and run by Broward College.

The destination, while memorable and super fun, is not exactly cheap. Prices start at $15 an hour for the water sports and $25 an hour for the Aqua Challenge, which involves jumping over a handful of giant floatables that resemble bounce houses. It's for ages 7 and up and features 10 different bouncy stations.

The one thing you can't do at this lake? Swim. You're allowed to wade in the shallow water behind ropes while you watch the splashy action.

No pets, drugs or alcohol are allowed inside the park, but you can bring in your own food, tent, chairs and umbrellas and host parties there. Check Groupon for deals before you buy ticket.
